

Privacy Policy for Zombie Holo

Effective Date: November 7, 2024

Introduction

Zombie Holo ("we," "our," or "us") is committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy describes how we manage user information for the Zombie Holo app ("the App").

1. Information We Do Not Collect

Zombie Holo does not collect any personal information. We do not gather, store, or process any identifiable data such as your name, email, phone number, or location. Your use of the app is entirely anonymous.

2. Advertising

Zombie Holo is a free app supported by advertisements. Our third-party ad partners may collect information such as device identifiers, usage data, and other non-personal information through their ad services to provide relevant ads. We do not control the information collected by these third-party services, so please review the privacy policies of our ad providers for more information on their practices.

3. California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) Compliance

Zombie Holo complies with the CCPA. Since we do not collect personal information, there is no data to "sell" or share with third parties. California residents have the right to request disclosure regarding the categories of personal information collected, used, and shared, though we do not collect any personal information that falls under this requirement.

If you have questions about CCPA compliance, please contact us at [Your Contact Email].

4. Third-Party Links and Services

Our app may contain links to other sites or services, including advertisements that lead to external websites.

We are not responsible for the privacy practices of these external sites, and we encourage you to review their privacy policies.

5. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy occasionally. Any changes will be reflected on this page, and the "Effective Date" will be updated. We encourage users to periodically review this policy to stay informed about our practices.
